MORNING PRAYERS – MONDAY 3RD MARCH TO FRIDAY 7TH MARCH 2025

DAY	COORDINATOR	PRAYER FOCUS
Mon	Tolu Olarinre	- Prayers of thanksgiving - Prayers that God will daily teach the hearts of our members, both old and young, how to live to please Him in every way and also strengthen us to do so every day. - Prayers that God will open the eyes of our members to areas of our lives in which we are occupied with unprofitable things and also strengthen us to dissociate ourselves from such things without delay, so that lost time may be redeemed for us. - Prayers that God will move in the lives of all our members that are involved in unclean relationships and separate them from those relationships before their lives, souls and reputation are completely ruined by them. - Prayers that God will give us adequate rainfall in every part of the country this year, so that there can be abundant food for us in the nation all through the year. - Prayers that God will frustrate every plot of the devil to use rainstorms or windstorms to destroy lives or properties in any part of the country this year.
Tue	Emma Olarinre	- Prayers of thanksgiving. - Prayers that God will frustrate every plot of the devil to capture the heart of any of our members, as he captured Judas Iscariot's heart, to do his will, so that we will not end up hurting or polluting ourselves. - Prayers that God, out of the fullness of Christ in us, will abundantly furnish us with all that is lacking in our fruit of the Spirit, so that His joy will continually overflow over us.

		- Prayers that God will adequately equip our assembly with all the gifts of the Spirit that we need to be built up to be all that He wants us to be in Christ and to also take His word to the ends of the earth. - Prayers for those in the field of journalism in the country that God provide them with quality leadership that will make truly efficient and effective in contributing to the development of our nation. - Prayers that God will provide all those involved in research that will promote the welfare of this nation with adequate funding and protection to succeed in what they are doing.
Wed	Fustina Lawal	- Prayers of thanksgiving. - Prayers for all our children and all the children of our partners in ministry that God will keep them from being victims of any form of accident or wickedness this year, so that their progress in life will not be hindered in any way. - Prayers for all our single brothers and sisters that God, in His mercy, will keep them pure and blameless in all their dealings, so that Satan will not be able to snatch excellence from them. - Prayers for all the leaders in our assembly that God will build them up in every way to be leaders whose service will continually be accepted in His sight, so that their labour among us and over us will not be in vain. - Prayers for all our workmen and workwomen in every part of the country that God will give tremendous increase to the fruit of their legitimate labour this month and also supply them with adequate power to enjoy it. - Prayers that God will frustrate all those who are out to devour the fruit of other people's labour in any part of the country this month and also hand them over to justice, so that our diligent workers will not be discouraged.
Thur	Dare Afolabi	- Prayers of thanksgiving. - Prayers that God will turn into nonsense every plot of the devil to render any of our brethren, old or young, useless to God, so that there will not be any among us that will not attain the height of usefulness God wants them to attain in life. - Prayers that God will continually cause us to be in harmony among ourselves, so that His love and power can freely flow from us to every part of this town. - Prayers that God will frustrate this month every plot of the devil to keep any of our members or partners in ministry occupied with pains or sorrow. - Prayers for all Christian husbands in every part of this country that God will strengthen them to love their wives, as Christ has loved the church, so that their homes can what God truly wants them to be. - Prayers for all Christian wives in every part of this country that God will strengthen them to be submissive and supportive to their own husbands, so that they will be able to raise their children in an atmosphere of love and peace.
Fri	Tolu Olarinre	- Prayers of thanksgiving. - Prayers that God will urgently take care of everything preventing the resources He has already released for our church auditorium from coming to us, so that we can complete it without further delay.

		- Prayers that God will enlarge greatly the boundaries of our radio programmes by providing us with abundant resources for them, so that His word will be able to reach the ends of the earth through us. - Prayers that God, by His mighty power, will tear down every barrier erected by the devil to keep our members financially stagnant or poor, so that we all can begin to multiply greatly in all kinds of good works. - Prayers that God will take away the defence of every place where people are being used for rituals in this country and judge all those involved in this wickedness in righteousness, so that this nation can be rid of the guilt of bloodshed. - Prayers that God will empower our security agencies all across this nation this month to succeed greatly in curbing and preventing crimes all across the nation, so that Nigerians everywhere can conduct their affairs in safety and peace.
